Angela Pomeranz, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the Depths of Slaughter is a soulfully written memoir of how God used the execution of Angela s uncle to lead her to her husband, after she thought she would never walk through a prison gate again. Her husband lived a criminal, street life. She was the good-natured, country girl brought up in a stable home and in church three times a week. She was the fragile lamb who was brought the black sheep with God s single command: Love him. The trials they faced in their differences and the prison barriers seemed too much. Yet God faithfully provided where He led her-being the wife of an unworthy prisoner by the world s standards. But, thankfully, not to God. Angela watches God transform her husband-a once murderer, robber, womanizer, and con man-into a man who prays daily, reads Scripture, and continues to learn how to love. He is still more sinner than saint some days, but as days move forward, God slowly occupies more parts of his life-and their marriage benefits. Through the answered prayers from the pit of her pain, God teaches her how to love in the hardest way-sacrificially. In reading her story, you will come to understand that no depth is beyond the redeeming love of Jesus-the ultimate sacrificial Lamb. Murder, drugs, pornography, death, disaster, divorce-your depth can be restored by Jesus s love as well. And as Angela discovers, by God s grace, the good does come, and through His grace, the journey is doable.
