

People: Inside the Lives of Everyday Folks from Sea to Shining Sea

By John H Clark III

Archangel Ink, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Revealing the Power of the Human Spirit The newlyweds who arrived in San Francisco just in time for the devastating earthquake. The centenarian who recalls learning to drive at age 11 and taking over the household duties when she was only 15. The man who survived the Luby's Cafeteria massacre of 1991 in Killeen, Texas. When disaster strikes, it often brings out a strength you never knew you had. The stories of these people are no exception. But there are ordinary triumphs, too. Adopting dogs that might otherwise get put to sleep. Retiring on the beach, even if you don't have a lot of money. Finding love in your family and friends. These things-from the seemingly small to the overwhelming-make up life as we know it. Real Human Connection in the Internet Age In the age of the internet, we like to believe that we're all more connected than ever before. But is that really true? Chances are, you don't really know your neighbors, let alone the events that have shaped their lives....
