Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 280 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.AUTHOR S BIOGRAPHY This is the first book written by Joyce Austin who grew up in Rhode Island hearing many stories of Guernsey from her father and grandfather. The book was prompted by the birth of another Guernsey cousin and Joyce s wish to pass the family history along to the next generation. Joyce has visited Guernsey several times; the most recent trip being in May 2011 when she and her husband, son and daughter traveled there to celebrate the 100th anniversary of her grandfather s immigration to the US. This book was many years in the making mostly because it was in competition with the other activities in Joyce s life which include working as an oncology social worker, raising children, traveling, singing, riding horses, gardening, and taking photos. She continues to live in New Hampshire with her husband where they are working on enjoying their new status as empty nesters ILLUSTRATOR S BIOGRAPHY Georgianna Ritter spent 10 years of her childhood living on an island which made her the perfect illustrator for this book....
