Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In the opinion of some scholars, Hamlet was really created by William Shakespeare as an autobiographical character, a person who could never make up his mind, liked to make pompous speeches to no one in particular, and was fond of sticking his sword through curtains in case anyone was trying to steal one of his plays that he never wrote anyway. HIP HAMLET There are also those who hold that Queen Gertrude was really Queen Elizabeth, which would have made her Shakespeare s mother, which would certainly revise the theory of the Virgin Queen. This is a stretch for most Englishmen, who are unwilling to go there. Enough of theory, the play is the thing, Bill says, and in Hamlet we have a story of a hip lad not understood by his generation, and who has worried successive generations since. Today s youth would certainly dig him, for he was hip, he was with it. He smoked high grade pot, wore the latest in mod fashion, and protested with vigor and class. It is not known if he had any tattoos. A note of warning. This author has taken a little liberty here and there, but only with the timing and the text. You may want to check the original to see how and who I have offended in the name of humor. As a useful comparison, you might want to watch a good video, say the one with Olivier as Hamlet. ROMEO JULIET The Coolest Of Lovers This attempt to color a well-known play by William Shakespeare with crude humor still does not mask the terrible beauty of a tale well told of tragedy and wasted love...
