Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from State Sovereignty and the Doctrine of Coercion: Together With a Letter From Hon. J. K. Paulding, Former Sec; Of Navy; The Right to Secede To the men of the South: The recent speech of Mr. Douglas at Norfolk, in which he threatened the Southern States with military coercion in the event of secession, ought to startle and arouse the people of those States, like the blast of a hostile trumpet at midnight! The time, the place, and the circumstances under which this threat was uttered, give the last finish to its audacity and sanguinary significance! The election of Lincoln is now well nigh certain. Nothing short of a miracle can prevent it. Lincoln is the chief and exponent of a party that is purely sectional - a party that has no foothold or resting place south of a geographical line, precisely separating the slaveholding from the non-slaveholding States. In fifteen States of the Union it has no countenance or recognition. The avowed object of this sectional party in seeking power, is to inaugurate and establish...
