As, in the glimmering autumn glade When no rude wind is blowing, The moon above the pinewood peers While yet the west is glowing: So - when the hues of passion fade Our mortal pride o'erthrowing, There rises through the deepening shade Beyond the hush of hopes decayed Another world in white arrayed; And dim upon our dreaming ears A voice - thy voice, celestial maid, - Falls, like a river flowing: Singing to those that sow in tears The harvest of their sowing. II. It shall be measured saith the lips Of Justice, even as ye mete - Mightier is she than many ships, Older than flag or fleet.
