Well if it is not a beautiful thing, than it is in fact the most beautiful thing. After all it is the only thing, yes the only thing, which keeps all that blood bumping through your veins. If you chose to believe otherwise, if are the celibate type, you are missing out at the least and a coward at the worst. You simply cannot truly believe that the glory between your legs, the thing that produces the only sensations that matter, is harmful by any stretch of the imagination. Maybe that is why this world, our world, is so mad; maybe that alone makes it ugly. Passion is the most unbridled in the rolodex of human emotions, so it must be the very thing that drives us to irrational conclusions. It sends on trips so strange; so intricate, that only a mad man, quite a lewd one at that, if any one at all could ever come to understand. You and all of your twisted carnal desires, are beautiful. Never let a soul, even that of the most kind hearted humanist, tell you otherwise. J. Kerouac was being honest when he said, the only people to me are the mad ones. ; if you aren t just a little out of line, a little deviant, than you are not human at all, are you? So we have reached a verdict: passion is not beautiful;...
