Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Sixteenth Biennial Report of the Montana State Board of Health: For the Years 1931-1932 The State Board of Health at its April, 1932, meeting, temporarily reduced the salaries of the employees 10 percent to take effect July 1, 1932. This was to help meet a state-wide financial emergency. It is hoped that when the depression is past and conditions again become normal, that the salaries can again be put back on a pre-depression basis. Our employees have technical training and cannot be retained unless they receive adequate salaries. The overhead expense was further reduced by the secretary taking over the duties of the director of the child welfare division, where a vacancy had occurred. This was made possible on account of the fact that he was relieved of much of the work in connection with Rocky Mountain spotted fever control work and also health work on the Indian reservations. In February, 1931, an appropriation was made by Congress to purchase the spotted fever laboratory at Hamilton. In February, 1932, the United States Public Health Service...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is writter in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Natalie Abbott

This book will not be simple to get going on reading but extremely exciting to read through. Yes, it can be play, still an interesting and amazing literature. I am very easily could possibly get a delight of reading a written book.
