Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Lecture, How God Made the Soil Fertile Life is a funny proposition. Fifteen years ago, I sold out a good business in Tyrone City, Pa. (few better in the and went down to the adjoining county - Huntingdon - and bought an old worn-out, run-down and abandoned farm. Windows were nailed up, roofs letting in the rain, gates going without hinges, fences had disappeared, and there had not been a farmer on it for seven years, because they could not find a man who would farm it. The land was so poor that you could not raise anything, not even a disturbance; could not raise an umbrella on it; sometimes I found difficulty in raising my voice on it. It was the most desolate-looking place in my county. My friends said I was the biggest fool on earth, and that I ought to have a guardian appointed over me; and, the day we moved down on the farm, Mrs. Seeds cried. I began to haul stable manure from Tyrone City, two and one half miles...
