FLOWERS TO THE TORCH: AMERICAN TANKA PROSE

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In Flowers to the Torch, Peter Fiore takes us on a Grand Tour of his life, from the moment his mother says yes to his father to his own imagined death, in which, tweaking T. S. Eliot a bit, he goes out with a bang, and possibly a whimper as well. Along the way, it s impossible for readers not to catch glimpses of their own lives and journeys. These are scenes from the game of life. There s a lot of tennis and music and women, often connected in one way or another. In other words, it s about how we face one another and move, about relationships. As one character says, I love you, and already it hurts. And even when some of these pieces make you ache with recognition, they can also make you laugh and think. After reading Complication #19, you ll be able to entertain yourself for days trying to imagine the first 18 complications. -Bob Lucky, author of Ethiopian Time.
